of Second Regiment Better That That of First.

NORFOLK, VA., July 39.—Despite the heavy downpour of Thursday night at the State rifle range, the grounds were in condition this morning for 7 o'clock assembly. Colonel Leedy, commanding the Second Regi ment, to-day commented particularly manner in which the camp moned, but there was no assistance he could render.

Mr. Myer had been troubled by the drained after the heavy rain. He said there had been no interference with the routine of work. Incidentally, Colonel Leedy won laurels to-day with the revolver, scoring $3 out of 100 points in fifteen yards rapid-fire shooting.

The instruction course has all been completed with the exception of eight men, and these will finish to-morrow morning. The remainder of the day morning. The remainder of the day will be given to inspection, paying off the men and preparing to depart on Sunday morning. It was said to-day that the showing of the Second as a whole will be better than that of the First Regiment last week. Army offi-cers stationed at the range said that while the Second may have a few less men to qualify as marksmen, sharp-shooters and experts, the general average of the scores will be higher than that of the First.
